Petr JAŠEK (Czech citizen)

Age: 52 years

Place of residence: Czech Republic

Date and place of arrest: On 15th December 2015, at Khartoum Airport

Charges: Breaking several sections of Sudan's criminal code: conspiring against the state, espionage against the country, entering and photographing military areas and works, calling for opposition to public authority by use of violence, provoking hatred against or amongst sects, publishing false news, immigrating in illegal ways and conducting voluntary jobs without permission from the authorities under Sudan's immigration and passport laws.

Statement of the defendant: He denies the charges.

Article of the criminal/civil/administrative code: Penal Code Article 51 (Waging war against the State, punishable by death) and Article 53 (Espionage, punishable by death).

First court decision: On 21st August 2016, he appeared in court but the outcome is unknown.

Last court decision: On 29th January 2017, he was sentenced to life in prison (23 ½ years) for spying, and fined 100,000 Sudanese pounds [approximately €14,643] for undertaking NGO work without a permit.

Place of detention: On 11th August 2016, he was moved to Al-Huda detention center in Omdurman after one week at Omdurman men's prison.

Date of release: 26th February 2017

Other information: He is a Czech missionary and filmmaker Petr Jasek. He made a video about the persecution of Christians. He has a twenty-year background in the medical field. In December 2015, Mr Jašek travelled to Khartoum and met Mr Omer, a friend of Mr. Abduraheem that needed medical treatment. Mr Jašek donated $5,000 for Mr Omer's medical treatment, which was signed for by Reverend Abduraheem and Mr Abdumawla. The prosecution alleges that the money Mr Jašek donated to Mr Omer's treatment was actually support for rebel movements in the South Kordofan, Blue Nile, and Darfur region. In February 2017 he was pardoned and freed by President Omar Bashir after the Czech Foreign Minister, Lubomir Zaoralek, visited Sudan to seek his release. On 26th February 2017, He was flown back to Prague with the Foreign Minister of the Czech Republic.
