

ALGERIA

Protestant

Slimane BOUHAFS

Age: 49 years

Date and place of arrest: On 31st July 2016, in Setif, Kabylie Region

Charges: Blasphemy against Islam and Muhammed

Statement of the defendant: He claims that the message and the pictures he posted on social media about the light of Jesus that overcomes the 'lie' of Islam and on the execution of civilians by the Islamic terrorists referred only to radical Islam and terrorism.

Article of the criminal/ civil/ administrative code: The Algerian penal code Article 144 bis (Provides that any individual who insults the prophet and the messengers of God, or denigrates the creed or prophets of Islam through writing, drawing, declaration, or any other means, will receive three to five years in prison, and/or be subject to a fine of between 50,000 and 100,000 Algerian dinars [approximately between €423 and €847 Euro])

First court decision: On 7th August 2016, he was sentenced to five years in prison.

Second court decision: On 6th September 2016, his sentence was reduced to three years in prison.

Last court decision: On 5th July 2017, he was granted partial presidential pardon, reducing his sentence to 16 months.

Place of detention: On 8th May 2017, he was transferred from Constantine Prison to Jjel Prison.

Date of release: 1st April 2018

Other information: Bouhafs' health conditions are precarious. The Algerian League for Human Rights (LADDH) said it will take this case to the Supreme Court. The sentence could be a way to silence Bouhafs because of his political activism. He is a member of the self-determination Kabylie movement (MAK), a separatist group. Because inmates attacked him after hate speeches of imams, Bouhafs has been transferred twice to another jail before his release.
