

RUSSIA: Complaints against a judge and the FSB in a trial against a Scientology prisoner of conscience

On 28 November, the St Petersburg City Court will hear an appeal filed against a judge and the FSB (KGBs successor) by the defense lawyer of the leader of the Scientology Church, Ivan Matsitsky, who in September was adopted as a prisoner of conscience by the US Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF), a bipartisan federal government entity based in Washington – writes Willy Fautré, Director of Human Rights Without Frontiers (Brussels)

EU Reporter (25.11.2018) – <https://bit.ly/2RdWfq9> – Under the fire of lawyer Evgeny Tonkov are Judge Evgeny Isakov and Senior Lieutenant Sergey Myakin of the Investigative Branch of the FSB in St Petersburg.

Ivan Matsitsky is a Russian Scientologist who has been held in pretrial detention for 17 months. In the background here is the Russian “extremism law” which is repeatedly used and abused by the authorities to persecute non-Orthodox minority religions and their members even though they do not incite to or use violence.

Last month, on 16 October, the judge of the St Petersburg City Court, Evgeny Isakov, again extended the pretrial detention of Matsitsky in controversial circumstances – the Investigative Branch of the FSB had obstructed him from properly challenging the repeated extensions of his detention in court during the previous four months.

Ivan Matsitsky's lawyer claims that the judge's decision is illegal as any extension of detention is "beyond every limit" and possible only in exceptional cases, which his client's situation is not. Furthermore, according to the law, Matsitsky should have been provided with the materials of the case, for his study, no later than 30 days prior to the end of the detention period. The prosecution stated in their motion that this was done last May 4th but lawyer Tonkov claims that this procedure has never been carried out. Matsitsky's lawyer claims that Senior Lieutenant Sergey Myakin of the Investigative Branch of the FSB did not provide even one volume of the criminal case to his client and he also accuses him of having falsified materials in the case.

Last but not least, the lawyer complains that the judge prohibited him from questioning the investigator about this matter during the course of the court hearing.

The leader of the Church of Scientology and four of his fellow members have been charged under Part 2 of Article 171 of the Criminal Code of Russia (illegal entrepreneurship committed by an organized group), Part 2 of Article 282 of the Criminal Code of Russia (incitement of hatred or enmity, as well as disparagement of human dignity committed by an organized group), and Parts 1 and 2 of Article 282.1 of the Criminal Code of Russia (organization of and participation in an extremist conspiracy). These accusations are baseless according to their lawyers.

More than thirty Russian citizens of other peaceful religious movements are currently under pretrial detention under the most spurious charges.

In 2018 USCIRF again recommended that Russia be designated as a “country of particular concern” under the International Religious Freedom Act (IRFA).

.....

If you want to be regularly informed about different violations of human rights in the world, click here for a free subscription to our newsletters!

Also:

HRWF database of news and information on over 70 countries: <http://hrwf.eu/newsletters/forb/>

List of hundreds of documented cases of believers of various faiths in 20 countries: <http://hrwf.eu/forb/forb-and-blasphemy-prisoners-list/>

PAKISTAN: Asia Bibi's release day has finally come! Now what?

BPCA (08.11.2018) – <https://bit.ly/20vhq4N> – Asia Bibi has been set free from her long-term home under captivity at Multan Jail and we confirmed this with media after news from her family. BPCA will not give any more details to media groups until given the express permission of the family.

Wilson Chowdhry has spoken with the family of Asia Bibi, at 6am UK time on 8th November and they expressed that it is of utmost importance that there be no further speculation on her whereabouts reported by either concerned groups or international media. Asia Bibi, her family and guardians all still face a real and present danger of being killed.

This article is to celebrate the release of Asia Bibi and though general steps brought forth by human rights activists any reports or comments therein about her possible location are not endorsed by BPCA.

Asia Bibi has now seen the light of day after ten years of incarceration, eight of which were on death row after she was falsely accused of blasphemy. The allegation arose after she drank water from a well used by Muslims and offered some to her coworkers who believed she had ritually defiled the well as they considered Christians unclean. Those convicted under Pakistan's blasphemy laws are subject to harsh penalties such as life imprisonment and the death penalty.

Read the full article at <https://bit.ly/20vhq4N>

.....

If you want to be regularly informed about different violations of human rights in the world, click here for a free subscription to our newsletters!

Also:

HRWF database of news and information on over 70 countries: <http://hrwf.eu/newsletters/forb/>

List of hundreds of documented cases of believers of various faiths in 20 countries: <http://hrwf.eu/forb/forb-and-blasphemy-prisoners-list/>